Two. $32,322 received as goods and services through the improper use of corporate credit cards. And, Three. All promissory notes and other claims of notes in his name or inuring to his benefit against the corporation.

That is the judgment and decision of the court.